

Artist Vita Massey

Artist Massey impresses her fans as well as national and international art collectors with her expertise in the field of psychology. She acquired the knowledge of this focus of her work through years of acquired skills as a correctional officer. In addition, she has been managing a facility with a standpoint in Bielefeld for almost 8 years.

The visual artist makes identity and the dissolution of facades behind which people hide her main focus of work.

People hide behind a mask. In order to finally eradicate this belief system, she created a kind of pictorial representation that is intended to finally change society's belief system.

"They did not believe that they were worthy of being loved for their own sake. They only saw obvious recognition as the key to their own healing."

Her vision is to work out one's identity, to bring about a parable from the inside out to the viewers with her art and to provide a direct exchange.

The main theme of her art is human emotions. She wants to inspire her viewers to self-acceptance and to initiate further development in her exhibitions. She was born in 1967 and creates her artworks near Bielefeld.
